

Giles Thomann H-R Services Held

8/27/73
Giles M. Thomann, a former Grinnell resident, died Monday, Aug. 27, at the Decorah Retirement Center, following an extended illness. He was 69.

The son of Frank and Annie Thomann, he was born Aug. 20, 1904, in Davenport. He was educated in the Iowa City schools.

He was married to Marian Larson of Decorah on April 27, 1946. Mr. Thomann was a postal and rural mail carrier for 23 years. He then came to Grinnell and started a business manufacturing fence controllers, which he operated for 19 years. After selling the business, Mr. and Mrs. Thomann moved to a farm near Decorah.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Frank Thomann of Iowa City; a sister, Mrs. Lucille Rawlings of Grinnell, and eight grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, and a sister.

Funeral services for Mr. Thomann were held Wednesday, Aug. 29, at the Steine Funeral Home in Decorah, with the Rev. Emil C. Martinson officiating.

Burial was in Highland Lutheran Cemetery.
