AMOS C. THOMPSON.

Amos C. Thompson, for many years a resident of Grinnell, died Sunday evening in the Community hospital. He had been in failing health for some time. Mr. Thompson was born in England, but nothing is known of his career before he came to Grinnell. He lived alone and was a junk dealer of parts, becoming a well known character whom everybody knew.

He was aged 68 years, seven months and 23 days.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from Snyder Brothers' chapel and interment was in Hazelwood cemetery. Rev. W. W. Woodburn conducted the services.
