

H-R February 2, 1981
Edna Tinnes rites Wednesday

(Howard)

Edna V. Tinnes, 83, of 1527 Spencer St., Grinnell, died Saturday afternoon, Jan. 31, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Naples, Fla., and Jean Leffler of Coos Bay, Ore.; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mrs. Tinnes will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the United Church of Christ — Congregational, with burial at Hazelwood Cemetery. Friends may call at the Smith Funeral Home beginning Monday evening.

Mrs. Tinnes is survived by her husband, Howard; two daughters, Betty Skonnord of

H-R February 5, 1981
Edna Tinnes services held

Edna V. Tinnes, 83, of 1527 Spencer St., Grinnell, died Saturday, Jan. 31, at Grinnell General Hospital.

law, Pearl and Ed Preston. She attended Browton High School and graduated from Hector High School in 1915.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the United Church of Christ — Congregational, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad, pastor of the church, officiating. Organist was Alice Renaud, and vocalists were Delmar and Norman Sharp. Pallbearers were Charles E. Bethel, Bill Davenport, Albert C. Eisenman, Myron Heneke, F. Addison Jones and Bill Vosburg.

She was married to Howard Tinnes on Sept. 24, 1919. The couple had two daughters. The couple lived at Stewart, Minn., until moving to Grinnell in 1932. Mr. Tinnes was associated with the former Richardson Lumber Co. here.

Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Tinnes was a member of the United Church of Christ — Congregational, serving the church as a deaconess for 7½ years. She was also on the Women's Association Board and was a member of the Sunset Club, the Drummond Club and the B.M. Chapter of P.E.O.

Should friends desire, memorials may be made to Grinnell General Hospital or to the United Church of Christ — Congregational.

The daughter of Harlon and Ida Olson Swan, she was born May 15, 1897, at Brownton, Minn. Following her parents' death, she lived with the family of her sister and brother-in-

Survivors include her husband, Howard; her daughters, Betty Skonnard of Naples, Fla., and Jean Lefler of Coos Bay, Ore.; and three grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; one sister, Pearl Preston; and one brother, Harry Swan.