

Clayton Tish services held

Clayton L. Tish, 88, of rural Deep River died Tuesday, May 3, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted May 7 at the Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma, with the Rev. Warren James of the Montezuma Baptist Church officiating. Organist was Kathleen Ramsey, and pallbearers were Bing Wolf, Carroll Smith, Allen Wheeler, Keith Fisch, Frank Wheeler and Paul Van Roekel. Burial was in West Liberty Cemetery.

The son of John and Selah Reeves Tish, he was born Nov. 15, 1899, near Searsboro. He was married to Mary Opal Vought Feb. 16, 1924, in Montezuma.

Mr. Tish is survived by his children, Orpha Mabeus of Weaver, Mildred Bringmann of Williamsburg, Iva Tinkle of

<sup>H-10 May 12, 1988</sup>
Malcom, Agnes Riley of Delta, Okla., and Kathryn Sellers of Deep River; 22 grandchildren; 27 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Eva Snook and Gladys Burggraaf, both of Deep River; and one brother, Kenneth of Brooklyn.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Mary; one son, Donald; two grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; five brothers, Chester, Warren, Floyd, Clair and Alfred; and two sisters, Sylvia Thompson and Cecile Snider.