

H-R April 11, 1977

Rites held for Verda Tish

Verda M. Tish, 84, a long-time resident of the Lower Blue Point community, died late Wednesday evening at St. Francis Manor. 4-6-77

Services for Miss Tish were held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Eugene L. McClure officiating. Organist was Kathleen Heffner, and pallbearers were Wilbur Allen, Karl Eker, Gary G. Gray, Tom Lowry, Alfred Tish and Clair Wells.

Burial was at the Lower Blue Point Cemetery.

The daughter of Charles and Lois Ann Spillman Tish, she was born Oct. 16, 1892, in the Blue Point community. She cared for her parents and sister for many years, and she cared for the Blue Point Church, a local historical landmark.

Miss Tish was preceded in death by her parents and her sister, Virgie M. Tish.