Mrs. Alta Trease, Lynnville, Dies; Services Today

NOVEMBER 26, 1962

LYNNVILLE (Special) — Mrs. Alta Trease, 88, died Friday evening at her home in Lynnville following an illness of the past several weeks.

Funeral services were held this afternoon (Monday) from the family home with the Rev. J. W. Garbison, former pastor of the Lynnville Friends church, officiating.

Pallbearers, all nephews, were Paul and Max Bushong, Art Hart, Walter Harvey, Chester Sears, and Vernon Jay. Interment was in Woodland cemetery.

Born in Newton, she was the daughter of Elijah and Martha Bartow and had lived in the Lynnville area most of her life.

On Sept. 19th, 1900, she was united in marriage with J. C. Trease, who survives. Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Gwendolyn Wright of Lynnville; and a granddaughter, Miss Beatrice Wright of Champaign, Ill.

Mrs. Trease was a member of Eastern Star, Holly Rebekah Lodge, and the Missionary Society of the Friends church.
