

Services Held For Dr. Guy Trimble, M. R. August 18, 1966 In Montezuma Practice For 60 Years

Funeral services for a long time Montezuma physician, Dr. Guy C. Trimble, were held Monday afternoon, August 15, at the Steffy Funeral Home. The Rev. Howard Hayes, pastor of the Montezuma Methodist Church, conducted the services. Music was provided by organist Miss Alice Underwood.

Interment was in Masonic-IOOF Cemetery. Casket bearers were Don Tindle, Fay Wasson, Ralph Wells, Robert Grimes, Richard Arendt and William Rempp.

Dr. Trimble, 86, died Friday evening, August 12, at the Mahaska Hospital in Oskaloosa.

The son of Clara and Isaac Trimble, he was born on Feb. 11, 1880, near Albia, Iowa. He attended the Albia schools and William Penn College in Oskaloosa. Dr. Trimble graduated from the Kirksville College of Osteo-pathy, Kirksville, Mo., where he studied under Dr. A. T. Still, the founder of Osteopathy.

On Aug. 31, 1904, he married the former Grace Shanahan. They moved to Montezuma soon after his graduation from Kirksville.

Dr. Trimble practiced in Montezuma for over 60 years, having established his practice here in January, 1906.

He was a member of the Methodist Church and of several professional organizations. He was also known as a supporter of any civic projects for the betterment of the community.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. R. J. H. (Mildred) Badger of Montezuma; a son, Dr. Roy Trimble of Montezuma; three grandchildren, Juanita Lovick, Roberta Linn, R. J. H. Badger Jr.; a step-grandson, William Bolen; ten great grandchildren; four sisters, Mrs. Fred (Pearl) Robnett of Albia, Mrs. Lester (Ruth) Galley of Hereford, Texas, Mrs. Clayton (Frances) Nelson of Laguna Hills, Calif., Mrs. Calvin (Ola) Harden of Montezuma; and two brothers, George of Santa Ana, Calif., and Paul of Madison, Wisc.

He was preceded in death by his wife, an infant daughter, one brother, two sisters and an infant grandson.