

Funeral Services
Held Wednesday
For Mrs. Turner

H-R 10-25-86

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Kellogg Christian church for Mrs. Eben (Jennie Louise) Turner, 79, lifetime resident of the Kellogg area, who died Sunday at a Grinnell hospital.

The Rev. Glenn Warner, pastor of the church, officiated at the services. Burial was in Our Silent City cemetery at Kellogg.

The daughter of William and Flavia Pringle, Mrs. Turner was born near Kellogg in 1877.

She was educated in Kellogg schools and the Hazel Dell Academy at Newton. Mrs. Turner taught for a number of years in rural schools near Kellogg.

She was married to Eben C. Turner April 13, 1898 in Kellogg. The couple celebrated its 50th wedding anniversary eight years ago.

Survivors include her husband, five daughters, Mrs. Ernest (Zola) Brooks of Kellogg, Mrs. Fred (Elba) Paulson of Venice, Calif., Mrs. August (Ruth) Schultz of Kellogg, Mrs. LeRoy (Thelma) Anderson of Antioch, Ill., and Mrs. Walter (Clara) Clauson of Des Moines; a son, Carol E. Turner of Minneapolis; 13 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren and a brother, Lewis A. Pringle of Los Angeles.

(EBEN)