

Newton Tyson 6-11 8-15-1933 Funeral Sunday

Newton Tyson, son of Hagerman and Matilda Tyson, was born in Tuscorois county, Ohio, Oct. 30, 1864, and died at his home, 404 East street, Aug. 11, at 8:15 p.m. Mr. Tyson came to Illinois when he was four years of age, and later moved to Stuart, Iowa, where he became acquainted with Miss Della Fox, to whom he was married Feb. 15, 1887. They came to Grinnell to live on his farm four miles southeast of town, where Carl Snyder is now living. They moved to town about thirty-three years ago.

One child was born to this home, but she lived only two years.

Mr. Tyson lost his hearing some years ago and this was quite an affliction to him. He was unselfish in his attitude toward others. He loved to share what he had with those about him, especially with those in need. He took into his home Mrs. George Heinle, who was nine years old when she came to live with them, and has been with them thirteen years.

He is survived by his wife, two brothers and several nephews and nieces. The brothers are Robert of Grinnell and Henry of Omaha. There are two nephews and one niece at Stuart, two nieces at Grinnell and two great nephews at Stuart.

Funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. W. J. Fowler of the Methodist church in charge. Burial in the Hazelwood cemetery in Grinnell. Pallbearers were Irving Bortell, Norman Pilgrim, George Murray, Shell Coop, Fred Heinle and Ira Goodrich.

Those who came from out of town to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tyson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tyson and son, Raymond, Mrs. John Tyson and Mr. and Mrs. Sellers, all of Stuart; Everett Tyson of Des Moines; Mrs. Maude Stringfield of Geneva, Nebr., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tyson of Omaha.
