

H-R May 11, 1987
VanDerKamp services held

William R. VanDerKamp, 85, of Lynnville died Tuesday, May 5, at his home.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Lynnville Friends Church, with the Rev. Kenneth Santee officiating. Music was provided by Harriett Macy, and pallbearers were Michael, Steven and Eugene Anthony and William, Larry, David and Robert VanDerKamp. Burial was in the Friends Cemetery at Lynnville.

He was born on Dec. 9, 1901, near Pella, the son of Jacob and Martha Kuiper

VanDerKamp. He attended rural school near Lynnville and the Slagel School.

On Feb. 14, 1923, he was married to Ollie F. Whetstine at Lynnville. Mr. VanDerKamp was employed by the railroad in Lynnville, at Macy Brothers, and the Maytag Co. He was a member of the Lynnville Friends Church.

Survivors include his wife, Ollie; one son, Ralph of Washington, Mo.; a daughter, Wanda Anthony of Newton; nine grandchildren; and 19 great-grandchildren.