

R January 8, 1981
Van Der Wilt services held

Carroll Van Der Wilt, 64, of Sully died Sunday evening, Jan. 4, at his home.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the First Reformed Church in Sully, with the Rev. B. Daniel Hakken officiating. Military graveside rites were conducted by the Pella American Legion post at the Sully Cemetery.

The son of Neal and Mayme Vande Krol Van Der Wilt, he was born Sept. 30, 1916, near Sully. He was married to Artie Huizer on Feb. 26, 1941.

Mr. Van Der Wilt was a member of the 392nd anti-aircraft division for 3½ years during World War II. He had been employed at Macy's Stockyards for 10 years, retiring in 1979. He had lived in Sully since 1972 and farmed in the Lynnville area since 1947 before moving to Sully.

Survivors include his wife, Artie; a son, Craig; four daughters, Caroleen Maasdam of Lynnville, Sharon Van Wyk of Grinnell, and Nancy Huyser and Denise Arkema, both of Sully; eight grandchildren; three brothers, Orval of Pella, Wildo of Monroe and Lester of Pella; and two sisters, Freida Goodyk of Pella and Vera Brand of Sully.