

Mrs Lloyd

Evelyn Van Gorp

Evelyn Marciel Van Gorp, 93, of Montezuma died Monday Oct. 9, 2000 at the Montezuma Nursing and Rehabilitation Center.

Her funeral was Thursday, Oct. 12, at 10:30 a.m. at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma. Officiating was Dr. George M. Salnave of the First Presbyterian Church. She was buried on Monday at Mt. Nebo Kendall Memorial Gardens in Miami.

Music selections were "Amazing Grace" and "The Lord's Prayer"

She was born Oct. 3, 1903 at Chicago, the daughter of Edward Eugene and Clara Olga (Reichstenier) Winters. She graduated from business school. She was united in marriage to Wallace Hurter and to this union two daughters were born. Evelyn worked in the banking business most of her life and retired from the Barnett bank in Miami, Florida.

She remained active and assisted with the development of the Casselberry Senior Citizens Center in Casselberry, Florida. It was here that she met Lloyd

Van Gorp of Montezuma and they were married April 6, 1986 in Florida. They attended the First Presbyterian church in Montezuma, where Evelyn was active in the Westminister Circle.

Her parents; her first husband, Wallace; and two brothers, Edward Winters and Walter Richards preceded her in death.

Evelyn is survived by her husband, Lloyd of Montezuma; two daughters and their husbands, Marilyn and Edward Gadinsky of Miami Beach, Florida and June and Alan Pittely of Casselberry, Florida; two step sons and their wives, Donald and Juanitta Van Gorp of Fort Worth, Texas and Marvin and Mary Van Gorp of Montezuma, Iowa; 14 grandchildren, Glenn Lane, Pamela Gadinsky, Brian Gadinsky, Seth Gadinsky, Joy Aldridge, Jean Josephson, Carol Paulus, Larry Van Gorp, David Van Gorp, Wayne Van Gorp, Diane Hester, Kathleen Watts, Marveen Arvidson, and Marchelle Goodman; 29 great grandchildren; 4 great great-grandchildren; and other relatives and many friends.

Evelyn Van Gorp