

Lucille Van Zante (DELMON)

Lucille Van Zante, 78, of North Platte, Neb., formerly of Lynnville, died of heart failure May 21 at Centennial Park Retirement Village in North Platte.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at Garden Chapel Funeral Home in Pella, with the Rev. Larry Howerzyl officiating. Organist was Ilda Lou Van Zee, and vocalist was Dale Jansen. Casket bearers were Elden, Wesley and Darwin Van Wyk and Arlyn, Steve, Merle and Jim Van Zante. Burial was in Sully Cemetery.

She was the daughter of John and Mary Elscott Kuiper and was born June 14, 1919, in Taintor.

She was married to Delmon Van Zante Feb. 2, 1938. They made their home in Lynnville. Mr. Van Zante died in 1974, and Mrs. Van Zante moved to North Platte the following year. She was a member of the United Methodist Church in North Platte.

Surviving are two daughters, Marilyn J. Swanson of North Platte and Marcella Bruinekool of Oskaaloosa; one son, Duane of Knoxville; three grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and one half-brother, Jay Kuiper of Michigan.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; and her step-mother, Henrietta Kuiper.

17-R
May
28, 1998