

H-R December 6, 1979
Vander Pol rites are set

Jennie Vander Pol, 80, a resident of Sully for 22 years, died Saturday noon at Grinnell General Hospital. Dec. 1

Funeral services for Jennie Vander Pol were held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 4, at the First Reformed Church in Sully, with the Rev. B. Daniel Hakken, pastor of the church officiating.

Burial was in the Sully Cemetery.

The daughter of William and Eva Brand Rykhoek, she was born on Dec. 20, 1898, north of Sully. She married Everett C. Vander Pol in Taintor on Feb. 13, 1918.

Survivors include a son, Melvin, of Oskaloosa; five daughters, Mrs. Joe (Henrietta) Harthoorn of Sully, Mrs. Arnold (Geneva) Ratcliff of Grinnell, Mrs. John (Wilda) Nikkel of Newton, and Mrs. Marvin (Ivan) Baarda and Mrs. Duane (Donna) Brand, both of Sully; and a brother, Ben Rykhoek of Newton.

She was preceded in death by her parents, a sister, and two grandchildren.

Memorial contributions to the Sunday School Union will be accepted. Memorials may be left at the Van Dyk-Düven Funeral Home in Pella.

E. C.