

Prof. Voertman dies

Prof. Robert F. Voertman, Grinnell College economist, died Tuesday night, Aug. 9, at the home of his brother in Texas. As of press time, there had been no word on arrangements, although the body was to have been cremated, according to college officials. Prof. Voertman joined the Grinnell faculty in 1957 and was promoted to full professor in 1968. He received his B.S. degree from North Texas State University and his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Texas. He retired from active teaching in 1987.
