Otto Vogt, 78, Dies Saturday; Services Today

Otto Vogt, 78, Rte. 1, Malcom, died Saturday morning at a local hospital.

Funeral services were held this afternoon (Monday) from the James-Schalinske Funeral Home with the Rev. E. E. Beattie of Malcom officiating. Interment was in Hazelwood cemetery.

The son of William F. and Wilhelmina Vogt, he was born on May 6, 1882, near Mount Joy in Scott county, Iowa. When a small boy he moved with his parents to a farm near Grinnell. He received his education in the rural and public schools of Grinnell. Mr. Vogt had been a farmer most of his life, until failing health the past four years forced his retirement.

On January 14, 1915, he was united in marriage to Lila Hall of Montezuma. To this union two children were born, William F., who resides on a farm near Montezuma, and Mrs. Jack (Pauline) Shaw of Des Moines.

Mr. Vogt was a member of the United Presbyterian church of Malcom, Ia., a forty year member of the Poweshiek County Farm Bureau. He was also one of the early members of the Grinnell Elks Lodge, joining in 1913, but not active in his later years.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers Christian J. and William F., two sisters, Mrs. Anna DeCamp and Mildred M. Vogt.

He is survived by his wife, a son and a daughter, four grandchildren William and Richard Vogt, and Michael and Monica Shaw; four brothers, Harry, Clarence, Grover of Grinnell and Walter of Montezuma, and one sister Miss Julia A. Vogt of Grinnell.
