Paul Vogt Dies; Services Thursday

Paul E. Vogt, 57, of 1215 Broad Street, died Sunday afternoon at University Hospitals in Iowa City.

The son of Christian J. and Sarah Marie Evans Vogt, Mr. Vogt was born in Malcom Township on Oct. 16, 1911. He attended the Grinnell schools and graduated with the class of 1930.

On April 15, Mr. Vogt married Martha Adamson at Unionville, Mo. He was the father of two daughters — Mrs. Frederic H. (Katherine Ann) Brock of Lancaster, Pa., and Miss Janet Lea Vogt, a graduate student at the University of Iowa.

Mr. Vogt had farmed all of his life on the family farm east of Grinnell. In 1967, following a fire that destroyed their home, Mr. and Mrs. Vogt moved to Grinnell.

Mr. Vogt was a member of the Grinnell United Methodist church and had been a member of the official board of the church as well as many other lay activities of his church. He was also a member of the B.P.O. Elks Lodge No. 1266 of Grinnell.

Survivors include his widow, Martha; his two daughters; one granddaughter — Christine Ann Brock; and one brother — Glenn

B. Vogt of Grinnell.

Funeral services for Mr. Vogt will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 5, at the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. J. Eugene Young, minister of the United Methodist church, officiating.

Burial will be in Hazelwood cemetery.

Friends may call at the Smith Funeral Home.

Those desiring to contribute to an American Cancer Society memorial in his honor may do so.
