Last Services For Mrs. Ruth Vogt Are Held This Afternoon

H.R. 2-9-1983

Funeral services in charge of Rev. W. F. Overhulser were held at the James funeral home this afternoon for Mrs. Ruth Vogt, widow of Chris J. Vogt, who died Friday afternoon in a local hospital after a long period of failing health. Pall bearers, all nephews, were Kenneth, Raymond, William and Donald Vogt, Leo Wright and Farrell Siehl. Interment was in the Wilson cemetery in Independence.

Ruth O. Miller was born March 14, 1889 at Independence, Iowa where she made her home until her marriage Nov. 20, 1919 to Oscar B. Davis.

To this union one daughter, Eleanor was born. The family moved to Grinnell in the year 1925 where she has since made her home.

Mr. Davis passed away Nov. 8, 1932 and she was united in marriage with Chris J. Vogt on Oct. 11, 1935. Mr. Vogt preceded her in death on April 6, 1945. Surviving to mourn her death are her daughter, Mrs. Don Thompson of Seattle, Wash., 2 grandchildren, Marsha and Michael, two step-sons, Paul and Glen Vogt of Grinnell, three sisters and two brothers; Mrs. N. S. Flack of Phoenix, Arizona, Mrs. Walter Johnson of Waterloo, Mrs. Ben J. Eilers of Clarion, Rodney D. Miller of Oelwein, and Merle W. Miller of San Francisco, Calif.

Mrs. Vogt was a member of the Methodist Church and Order of Eastern Star. Besides the relatives she leaves many friends to mourn her passing.
