

H-R January 28,
1980

Mrs. Vulysteke rites today

Beatrice Vulysteke, 68, of 300 Park St., Grinnell, died Friday morning at Grinnell General Hospital. Jan. 25

Funeral services are scheduled for 3:30 p.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. David Pinkerton, pastor of the Oak Grove Friends Church, officiating. Organist will be Kathleen Heffner, and pallbearers will be Veri Garwood, Marion Gibson, Paul Jurgenson, Fred Martin, Don Schultze and Don Sowerwine. Honorary bearers will be Vernon Gibson, Shell Criswell, Otto Fistler, Will Hotchkin and Dale Phipps. Burial will be at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of LeRoy and Margaret Mary Keenan Beason she was born Jan. 9, 1912, near Ewart. She attended rural Poweshiek County schools. She was married to Victor Vulysteke at Unionville, Mo., in 1936. Mr. and Mrs. Vulysteke had lived at their Grinnell home for the past 35 years.

Mrs. Vulysteke is survived by her husband; two sons, Victor L. Vulysteke of Holiday Lake and Richard W. Vulysteke of Marengo; six grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Emil (Iona) Darland of Burbank, Calif., and Mrs. Hazrel Walker of Holiday Lake; and three brothers, Ernest Beason of Grinnell, Lester Beason of San Bernardino, Calif., and Alec Beason of Rolling Hills, Calif.

She was preceded in death by her parents; one brother, Theodore Beason; and one sister, Mrs. Florence Gibson.

Victoria