

Funeral Services For Fred Wagaman, 69, Held at Lynnville

~~U. R. 11-2-1953~~
Lynnville (Special) — Funeral services were held this afternoon for Fred Wagaman, 69, who died at his Lynnville home Thursday morning. He had been ill for several months following surgery.

Rev. Willard Reynolds of Earlham, former Lynnville pastor, was in charge of the services held at the Lynnville Friends church.

Wagaman was the owner and operator of the historic Lynnville mill until his retirement, when his son Harris took over.

Survivors are: his wife, Ada; his sons, Willard of Kilduff, Charles of Dysart, Herbert and Robert of Marshalltown, and Harris of Lynnville; and his daughters, Mrs. Minerva Beiber of Green Castle, Ind., and Mrs. Catherine Johnson of Marshalltown.
