

(John M.)

OBITUARY.
1-1-1915

Mrs. J. M. Walker.

Monday evening, Dec. 28, Mrs. J. M. Walker passed away, after months of pain and suffering. She was born in Ripley county, Indiana, December 24th, 1851, and was united in marriage to John M. Walker, of Grinnell, March 23rd, 1873. Mrs. Walker was the mother of eight children, two of whom died in infancy.

A short service was held at the home, 1303 Reed street, yesterday at 10 o'clock a. m. The body was then taken to the Hickory Grove U. B. church, of which she was a member, where services were held in charge of Rev. H. L. Wissler of Chester. The body was interred in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Besides her husband, she leaves three sons and three daughters: Fred O. Walker, R. H. Walker, O. P. Walker and Mrs. Grace Livingston of Hickory Grove township, Jasper county; Mrs. Geo. F. Pallor and Lenice E. Walker, of Grinnell.

Mrs. Walker was a loving mother, a true friend and a kind neighbor. Her life in Hickory Grove township was filled with kindly service for others. The loss will be felt by all who knew her and had been recipients of her friendship.
