Frank Walker,
well known
area golfer, dies

Funeral services for Frank B. Walker, 65, of Marshalltown, were held at the Estel-Perrin Funeral Home in Marshalltown Saturday.

Walker, who was the father of Vaughn Walker of Oakland Acres, was well known in Grinnell. Known as one of the good golfers in the area, Walker had played the Grinnell Country Club and Oakland Acres courses numerous times over the years. Sept. 21

Walker died suddenly while at the Legion Memorial Golf Course last Thursday evening.

Survivors are his wife, Alice, of Marshalltown and his son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Walker, Trevor and Kevin, of Oakland Acres. Mrs. Frank Walker is the former Alice Ferneau of Grinnell.

Burial was in Riverside Cemetery in Marshalltown. In charge of services was the Rev. Jack Maudin, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Claude Ahrens of Grinnell was one of the honorary bearers at the funeral.
