

Mrs. Wallis
H-R April 14, 1988
dies in Denver

Eulalia Critchlow Wallis, 93, of Denver, Colo., formerly of the Malcom area, died March 22 at the Aspen Care Center in Colorado.

Funeral services were conducted March 25 at Crown Hill Mortuary Chapel, with the Rev. Keith Sorenson officiating. Pallbearers were Merle, Phil and Mike Wallen of Denver and Roger Wallis of Loveland, Colo.

She was born Oct. 20, 1894, at Emden, Mo., and was married to Archie Wallis of Grinnell, Mabel Wallen of Marshalltown and Harold Wallis of Denver, as well as 12 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Archie; one son, Raymond; her parents; a brother, Earl Critchlow; and a sister, Delelah Ketsenburg.

Rites held for Mrs. Wallis (ARCHIE)

Eulalia Critchlow Wallis, 93, Denver, Colo., formerly of the Malcom area, died March 22 at Aspen Care Center in Colorado.

Funeral services were held March 25 at Crown Hill Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Keith Sorenson officiating. Jacqueline Wennberg was organist and Jon Orndorff soloist.

Pallbearers were Merle, Phil and Mike Wallen, Marshalltown; Chester Wallis, Colfax; Richard Wallis, Denver, and Roger Wallis, Loveland, Colo.

She was born Oct. 20, 1894, at Emden, Mo., and was married to Archie Wallis at Emden.

Survivors include two sons Lawrence Wallis, Grinnell, and Harold Wallis, Denver; one daughter Mabel Wallen, Marshalltown; 12 grandchildren and several great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband Archie; one son Raymond; her parents; one brother Earl Critchlow and one sister Delelah Ketsenburg.

H-R APRIL 14, 1988