

Rites Saturday For Mrs. Maude Wasson

(William)

Mrs. Maude Wasson, 78, a Brooklyn resident for 42 years, died last Wednesday at Community hospital in Grinnell where she had been admitted two days earlier. Mrs. Wasson had been in failing health for the past few years, however she had maintained her home in Brooklyn since the death of her husband, W.I. Wasson, December 12, 1964.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at two o'clock at Grace Methodist church in charge of the Rev. C.W. Woollard. Leo Shuler was organist. Interment was in Palo Alto cemetery near Newton. Pallbearers were Harley Burch, Harold Keller, Clair McIlrath, Kenneth Carmichael, Floyd McAllister and Edwin Montgomery. Floral attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Maynard McLain.

Maude Coker Wasson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claborn Coker, was born Oct. 2, 1887, in Pocahontas county, Iowa, and died July 27, 1966.

She was married to William Wasson Nov. 1, 1911, at the home of her parents near Newton. Mrs. Wasson had taught school in Jasper county and had served as principal of the Reasnor school. For 13 years the couple lived at Reasnor before moving to Brooklyn in 1924. Mrs. Wasson was associated with her husband for many years in the Brooklyn Cooperative Creamery.

She was a member of Grace Methodist church, P.E.O., Order of Eastern Star, the Philathea Sunday School class, W.S.C.S. and had been active in the civic affairs of the community for many years.

She is survived by two brothers and a sister. They are Charles E. Coker of Laguna Beach, Calif., H.F. Coker of Long Beach, Calif. and Mrs. Allen Moore of Newton.
