

CLARENCE WATLAND
Veteran World War I

BORN

December 5, 1896, New Sharon, Iowa

ENTERED INTO SERVICE

January 19, 1946, Rochester, Minnesota

MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD

2:00 P. M., January 22, 1946
Congregational Church, Newburg, Iowa

CLERGYMAN

The Rev. E. F. Lipscomb, Newburg, Iowa

HYMNS

Jesus I Come Jesus Savior Pilot Me
By Quartette: Marie Hendrickson, Kathrine Lowden,

Virgil Palmer and Lloyd Stralks
Sung By Grace

By Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Lipscomb
Pianist—Laurille Newcomer

FLOWER BEARERS

Mrs. Florence Schroder Mrs. George Palmer

PALL BEARERS

Hugo Haussbrink George Mason

Glen Howell Charles Newcomer

Roy Malloy George Palmer

LEGION SERVICE

INTERMENT

New Sharon, Iowa
Smith's Funeral Service

IN EARLY 1912 OUR NATION WAS THRILLED BY THE NEWS THAT GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR HAD ARRIVED IN AUSTRALIA TO CARRY ON THE ALLIED COMMAND FROM THERE THE HOME FOLKS IN LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS, BIRTPLACE OF GENERAL MACARTHUR, WERE ESPECIALLY HEARTERED THEIR FEELING WAS GIVEN EXPRESSION IN AN INSPIRING MESSAGE TO THE GENERAL FROM THE REV. WILLIAM FOSTELL WITSELL, RECTOR OF CHRIST CHURCH, EPISCOPAL, WHERE MACARTHUR WAS BAPTIZED:

"THE CHURCH OF YOUR BAPTISM SENDS GREETINGS AND EXPRESSIONS OF FAITH AND LOVING PRIDE IN YOU."

IN REPLY TO THIS BEAUTEFUL TRIBUTE THE GENERAL SAID:

"AT THE ALTAR WHERE I FIRST JOINED THE SANGUINARY OF GOD I ASK YOU TO SEEK DIVINE GUIDANCE FOR ME IN THE GREAT STRUGGLE THAT LOOMS AHEAD."