Derald Weaver

Derald E. Weaver, 73, of Newburg died of cancer Sunday, April 21, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services were held Thursday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Ken Wallace, pastor of the Newburg-Chester Congregational Church, officiating. Organist was Alice Renaud, and vocalists were Delmar and Jean Sharp. Pallbearers were Richard Bailey, Ron Harter, Jim Henning, John McCulley, James McIlrath and Bob Wilkins. Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The son of Harold and Alma Anderson Weaver, he was born Jan. 5, 1929, on a farm near Gilman. He was raised in Newburg and was a 1948 graduate of Newburg High School. He served with the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict.

He was married to Peggy Latham July 23, 1950. The couple lived in Newburg, and Mr. Weaver was employed in custom farm work in the area for 25 years. He later was employed at Farmhand in Grinnell, retiring in 1994.

He was a member of the Newburg-Chester Congregational Church, the Grinnell Elks Lodge and the American Legion. He was also a charter member of the Newburg Water Association.

Surviving are his wife; two sons, Charles of Orlando, Fla., and Ron of Grinnell; three sisters, Doris Logsdon of Sioux City, Joyce Humphrey of Kellogg and Darlene Clark of Grand Island, Neb.; one brother, Vernon of Davenport; and four grandchildren. His parents preceded him in death.

Memorial contributions may be directed to Grinnell Regional Medical Center of the Gilman American Legion.
