Former Grinnellian Passes On In Indiana

(J.B.)

Funeral services were held in Indianapolis, Ind., on Saturday morning, Nov. 13, for Mrs. J. B. Weaver, the former Elizabeth Sherman, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. L. P. Sherman of Grinnell.

Mrs. Weaver passed on on Wednesday, Nov. 10, at Midland House, a Christian Science Nursing Home. She was born in Paducah, Kentucky on Sept. 20, 1914 and grew up in Grinnell, graduating from Grinnell College in the class of 1935.

She was a member of PEO, active in the Fifth Church of Christ Scientist, and the Young Republican Women of her community. She was also a Girl Scout leader for five years in Noblesville, Ind.

She is survived by her widower and two children, Mrs. Larry Clark of Indianapolis, and Thomas A. Weaver, at home. There is also one grandson surviving, Todd Allen Clark.

Three sisters also survive: Mrs. David Bair of Winnetka, Ill., Mrs. Paul Bridgham of St. Joseph, Mich., and Mrs. William McEwen of Amherst, Mass.
