

Services Held At Brooklyn For Mary Weisskopf

H-E 5-22-58

Mrs. Daniel P. Weisskopf of Malcom, who died May 16th, was buried from a Mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church in Brooklyn on Tuesday, May 20th. Rev. G. A. Lillis officiated.

Rosary was recited at the Dramer Funeral Home in Brooklyn on Monday evening. Flowers were cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Logan and Mr. and Mrs. John Schroeder.

Pallbearers were Achiel Wau- ters, Larry Hall, Fred Beck, Floyd White, Paul Stone, and James Kriegel. Interment was in Ivy Hill cemetery at Malcom.

Mary Aylene Crosby was born Nov. 7th, 1925 to Frederick and Anna M. Crosby at Prince Edward Island, Canada, and grew up in Boston, Mass., where she was united in marriage to Daniel P. Weisskopf on Sept. 30th, 1945.

They made their home in Malcom where five children were born to the union. Survivors include her husband and her children, Donna, Danny, Carol, Philip, and Susan.

Other survivors are her mother, Mrs. Anna Crosby of Boston; her father, Frederick Crosby of California; four sisters, Mrs. Evans Bartlett and Mrs. Eulon Kimbrell of California, Mrs. Thomas McMullen and Mrs. Francis MacDougell of Boston; and three brothers, Frederick of Montreal, Canada, John and William of Boston.

(Daniel P.)