

H-R May 14, 1979
Wells dies in Sioux City

David Leslie Wells, 12, son of Harold and Margaret Shipman Wells of rural Sully, died Friday evening at the St. Joseph Memorial Hospital in Sioux City. May 11

Services for David Wells will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday, May 15 at the Sully Community Church, with burial in the Sully Cemetery.

Born at University Hospitals in Iowa City on Jan. 4, 1967, he was a resident of the Tommy Dale Memorial Hospital, which specializes in children with birth defects, for the past 10 years.

Surviving him are his parents; two brothers, Timothy and Terry; two half-sisters, Paulette Korn of Des Moines and Carlotta Kling of Kellogg; two half-brothers, Harold M. Wells Jr. and Ronald Hynick of Oskaloosa; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Bert (Verona) Wells of Grinnell; and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Roy (Opal) Shipman of Beacon.

H-R May 17, 1979
David Wells

rites Tuesday

David L. Wells, 12, the son of Harold and Margaret Shipman Wells of Rte. 1, Sully, died Friday evening at St. Joseph Hospital in Sioux City.

He had been cared for at the Tommy Dale Memorial Home in Sioux City for the past 10 years.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Tuesday at the Sully Community Church, with the Rev. John T. Cocoris, pastor of the church, officiating. Organist was Deloris Briggs. Pallbearers were Bruce Dunsberg, Lanny Brand, Mark and Marty Hay, Bryan Van Norden, Daryl Van Wyk and Greg Van Wyk. Flower bearers were Mrs. Tunis Van Norden and Mrs. Dean Newell. Burial was at the Sully Cemetery.

David Wells was baptized on Oct. 16, 1977, at St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Sioux City.

He is survived by his parents; his brothers, Timothy and Terry Wells; his half sisters and half brothers, Mrs. Paulette Korn of Des Moines, Mrs. Larry (Carlotta) Kling of Kellogg, Harold M. Wells Jr. of Newton and Ronald Hynick of Oskaloosa; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Opean Shipman of Beacon; and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Verona Wells of Grinnell. He was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Roy L. Shipman and Bert F. Wells.