The funeral of Dr. Charles Wessel, whose death at St. Joseph last Monday has already been noted in these columns was held Thursday at Snyder's Undertaking parlor.

The service was conducted at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. C. A. Carman of the Baptist church. Mr. Wessel had lived in Grinnell with his mother nearly all his life, his father Dr. Wessel having died while living at Guernsey. Soon after his death his widow and her children returned to the old home town of Grinnell.

So Charlie grew up here and attended school here. He started five years ago to take a course to prepare him to become a veterinary surgeon. The course was interrupted by his enlistment, and after his discharge he resumed his studies. He was to graduate next May.

Bearers were Albert Chittenden, and Philip Ellsworth of Oskaloosa and Gar Carter, Frank Schultz, Bernard McDonough and Harold Slater of Grinnell.

Present at the funeral from out of town were his sister and her husband Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Brown, Joe Von Draska of Peoria, Will and Fred Von Draska of Oskaloosa, Mrs. Agnes McClintic of Monmouth, Ill., Mrs. Nellie Von Draska Ellsworth and Mrs. Mable Bruggen of Oskaloosa, and Miss Helen Ezsicza of Iowa City. Mr. Bruggen and Mr. Ellsworth were also present.
