Daisy Whisenand

Daisy M. Whisenand, 93, of Grinnell died Friday, Oct. 2, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma, with the Rev. Eldon Pals of the Ewart Presbyterian Church officiating. Organists were Sherrill Whisenand and Kathleen Ramsey.

Casket bearers were grandsons Ike, Kurt and Charles Whisenand; Bob Ogan; Doug Phillips and Jeff Hautekeete. Honorary bearers were her eight other grandsons. Burial was in Pleasant Township Cemetery, Ewart.

She was born July 22, 1905, in New Sharon and was the daughter of Edward and Clara Miller McCain.

She was married to Isaac "Ike" Whisenand March 3, 1923, in Okaloosa. They farmed near Montezuma for several years.

Following her husband's death in May 1966, Mrs. Whisenand continued to live on the farm until moving to Grinnell in 1977.

She was a member of the Ewart Presbyterian Church, the Country Side Stars Club, the R.S.V.P. Senior Center in Grinnell and the Senior Center Kitchen Band.

Surviving are four sons, Isaac of Prescott, Ariz.; Gerald of South Beloit, Ill.; Bill of Albuquerque, N.M., and Paul of Kelley; three daughters, Lois Ogan of Grinnell, Phyllis Phillips of Montezuma and Linda Hotchkin of Grinnell; 25 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; and eight great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; one son, Donald; one grandson; two great-grandchildren; two sisters, Velma Hietsman and Eva Saunders; and three brothers, Glenn, Robert and Merle McCain.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Ewart Presbyterian Church or to the Grinnell Senior Center Kitchen Band.
