Ewart Services Conducted For Ike Whisenand

(Isaac)

Funeral services were conducted May 17th at the Ewart Presbyterian church for Isaac (Ike) Whisenand, 67, who died May 14th while enroute to a Grinnell hospital.

Officiating at the services was the Rev. G. R. Dieken. Vocal music was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stahl, accompanied by Miss Kathy Braley at the organ.

Pallbearers were Fred Curry, Don Tindle, Rene Van Tomme, Dwight McCain, Russell Talber, and Dorsey DeHoedt. Burial was in the Ewart cemetery.

The son of Sarah and Jacob Whisenand, he was born in Macon county, Mo., on Apr. 14th, 1899. He attended rural school and helped with farm work as a youth. The family moved to Illinois where he worked in a coal mine. When he was about age 18, he moved to Iowa where he was employed as a farm hand.

On Mar. 3rd, 1923, he was married to Daisy McCain. To this union eight children were born: Don of Farmington, Ill., Isaac Jr. and Bill of Albuquerque, N. M.; Gerald of Montezuma; Paul of Kelly; Mrs. Duane (Phyllis) Phillips of Newton; and Mrs. Lois Ogan and Mrs. Linda Hautekeete of Grinnell.

In addition to his wife and children, he is survived by 17 grandchildren.
