

Hattie Mae White

(Gerald)

Hattie Mae "Pat" White, 82, of 90 Fourth Ave., Grinnell, died Wednesday, March 19, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services were held Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home. Organist was Teresa Thompson, and vocalists were Frank and Sherry Shults. Pallbearers were Larry Grovenburg; Brian, Curt, David, Nick and Tim Kinnaird; Dan McCulley; and Rick and Tom Moyer. Burial was in Sugar Grove Cemetery near Newton.

The daughter of Curtis and Lillie Hutchison Benskin, she was born Dec. 2, 1914, near Wesley, Iowa. She was a 1933 graduate of Laurel High School.

On Nov. 20, 1935, she was married to Donald Kinnaird at Laurel. The couple farmed near Laurel, Searsboro, Grinnell and Wesley.

She was married to Gerald White March 1, 1973, at Johnston. The couple lived in Des Moines where she worked at Northwest Hospital. Following the death of her husband she moved to Grinnell in the mid-1970s and worked at the Grinnell Country Club. She retired in 1981 and moved to Brookside South.

Mrs. White was a member of the First Federated Church in Des Moines, the Order of Eastern Star, the Rebekah Lodge and the White Shrine of Newton.

Surviving are five sons, Wayne Kinnaird of East Dubuque, Ill., Wendell and Earl Kinnaird, both of Grinnell, Bill Kinnaird of Altoona and Jerry Kinnaird of Salina, Kan.; three daughters, Donna Grovenburg, Joan Moyer and Judith McCully, all of Grinnell; 17 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and one brother, Vearl Benskin of Iowa City.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and one brother, Arthur Benskin.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Shriners Children's Hospital.