

Miss White

Dies at 84 H.K.

12/3/73

Word has been received here of the death of Margaret White, 84, formerly of Grinnell.

Miss White died Dec. 3 as the result of injuries suffered in November, 1972, when an electrically operated garage door closed on her. She had been hospitalized since the accident.

A native of Waverly, Miss White moved to Omaha, Neb., in 1934 as executive director of the YWCA. A 1912 graduate of Grinnell College, she also did work for social service agencies in Los Angeles, Calif.; Denver, Colo.; St. Paul and Winona, Minn.; and in Greece and Turkey. She held a degree in social work from Columbia University.

Miss White is survived by her sisters, Mrs. Temple Burling of Trumansburg, N.Y., and Mrs. Esther Parr of Pinellas Park, Fla.

Burial was in the family plot in Grinnell.
