

H-12 April 10, 1986
Steven White services held

Steven S. White, 20, of Widefield, Colo., a seaman recruit in the U.S. Navy and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R.G. White, died April 2 in Dam Neck, Va., from injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident.

The Mass of Christian burial was held Monday, April 7, at Holy Family Catholic Church, Widefield, with burial with military honors in Colorado Springs, Colo.

He was born May 2, 1965, in San Diego, Calif., the son of David White and Betty Daffern

White. He had lived in Waterloo until 1973 when he moved to Widefield. He had worked with a painting contractor in Colorado Springs before joining the Navy in November 1985.

Surviving are his mother, Betty Daffern White, Widefield; his father, David White, Waterloo; a brother, Patrick, Widefield; his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R.G. White, Grinnell; and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Daffern, Santee, Calif.