

BC ¹¹⁻¹¹⁻¹⁹⁸⁷
CARL F. WIEDEMEIER

Carl F. Wiedemeier, 72, Rt. 1, Ladora, died Sunday, Nov. 1 at his farm home. (Three men have been charged with robbery and murder in connection with Wiedemeier's death.)

He was the son of Charley and Bertha Wiedemeier and was born on May 5, 1915, at his present farm southeast of Victor. He attended rural school near Victor.

Mr. Wiedemeier farmed on the family farm all of his life.

Survivors include his son, Gary L. Wiedemeier of Clay, N. Y.; one grandson, Scott Wiedemeier; one brother, Vernon Wiedemeier of Swisher, Ia.; and two sisters: Mildred Gressley of Milford, Ia., and Viola Schultz of Grand Rapids, Mich. He was preceded in death by his parents and one sister, Irene Koehn.

Carl Wiedemeier was married to the former LaVera Martens of Deep River.

Funeral services were held Nov. 9 at McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home with the Rev. Ginger Anderson-Larson, pastor of the First Lutheran Church of Conroy, officiating. Organist was Mrs. Jane Alexander. Pallbearers were Richard Cochran, Stanley, Kovar, James McGory, John McGory, Vernon Schroeder and Robert Seye. Burial was in the Victor Memorial Cemetery.