

Edward Wilde Rites Conducted Monday

Funeral services for Edward Wilde, 90, were conducted Monday afternoon at two o'clock at Bramer's funeral home. The Rev. G.H. Hulsebus, pastor of First United Presbyterian church, officiated and Mrs. Ed Bartachek was organist.

Interment was in I.O.O.F. cemetery with Harley Burch, Wallace Edelen, William Holley, Cliff Williamson, Hobart Powell and William P. Ormiston serving as pallbearers. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams assisted with the flowers.

John Edward Wilde, son of John and Eliza Wilde, was born at Llandrinie, Montgomeryshire, England on May 19, 1882, and died January 4, 1963, at his home in Brooklyn following several weeks illness.

Mr. Wilde came to the United States in 1912 and worked on a farm for Allen Lang and later operated several farms in the Brooklyn area until his retirement in 1950 when he moved to Brooklyn. He worked part time as an employee of the T.I.P. Rural Electric Cooperative until poor health forced complete retirement.

As a young man he became a member of the Episcopal church of England. He was a member of the I.O.O.F. lodge in Brooklyn for many years.

He is survived by two sisters, Miss Lena Wilde and Mrs. Maria Williams, and two nieces, Miss Evelyn Williams and Mrs. I.L. Nervig, all of Brooklyn.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one sister in England.
