Harry Clell Williams.

Mr. Harry Clell Williams was born Feb. 29, 1888, at Reasoner, Ia. His death occurred on the evening of March 14, 1916, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Henry McMeekin, in Ewart.

The family came to Ewart in 1890. Practically all of Harry's life has been spent in Ewart, except six years spent with his grandmother at Reasoner after his mother's death in 1901. The father died in 1909 in Davenport, Ia.

Harry united with the United Presbyterian church of Ewart in 1907. Becoming more deeply interested in the cause of the Master last fall, he joined the Union gospel team in its work.

A few days before he died he expressed a desire to give up his struggle for life and a willingness to depart to a better home where he would be free from his sufferings.

He leaves of the family Mrs. Henry McMeekin, of Ewart; Mr. George Williams, a carpenter and contractor of Grinnell; Mr. Herbert Williams, living in Illinois; and Mrs. J. F. McMeekin, of Grinnell.

There were a number of beautiful floral tributes from different church organizations, the gospel team and other friends.

The funeral service was held in the United Presbyterian church at Ewart yesterday in charge of Rev. W. R. Lawrence of Grinnell, assisted by Rev. Gregson.
