

Rites set for Miss Williams

H-R April 3, 1986
Hazel Williams, 88, of Grinnell died Tuesday, April 1, at Marshalltown Manor.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Willard Reynolds officiating. Burial will be in Sugar Creek Cemetery near Lynnville.

The daughter of Edward and Bertha Heacock Williams, she was born on April 15, 1897, near Lynnville. She attended rural school in Richland Township. She came to Grinnell in the 1930s and worked for the Grinnell Glove Co. and later for One-Minute Washing Machine Co., formerly located in Kellogg. She had lived at the Montezuma Care Facility since 1978 before moving to Marshalltown Manor.

She is survived by a half-sister Janet Tucker of Oskaloosa, and was preceded in death by her parents; a brother, Everett Williams; and a sister, Leola Williams.

#-R April 7, 1986
Miss Williams services held

Funeral services for Hazel M. Williams, 88, of Grinnell, who died April 1 at Marshalltown Manor, were conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home.

The Rev. Willard Reynolds of Grinnell officiated. Organist was Kathleen Heffner, and pallbearers were Nigel Anderson, Max Bennington, Arthur McDowell, Raymond McDowell, Jerold Poots and Noel Taylor.

Burial was in the Sugar Creek Cemetery near Lynnville.