

Vera Williams

Vera A. Williams, 93, of Wharton Manor, Manhattan, Kan., a former resident of Lynnville, died Saturday, March 7.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at the Edwards-Yorgensen-Meloan Funeral Home in Manhattan, with burial in Sunrise Cemetery there. A memorial fund has been established for either Wharton Manor or Manhattan Home Care Services.

The daughter of Albert Theodore and Luella Jane Johnson Snyder, she was born Feb. 3, 1899, in Lacey, Iowa. She had been a resident of Manhattan since 1976, moving there from Lynnville.

She was married to Wallace J. Williams June 26, 1918, in Lacey.

Mrs. Williams was a long-time member of the D.A.R. and had attended William Penn Academy in Oskaloosa. For more than 30 years she was a piano and organ instructor. She was a member of the Lynnville Friends Church.

Surviving are her husband; one daughter, Jane Wassom of Manhattan; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

H-R
March 12, 1992
(Wallace J.)