

H-R August 19,
Lloyd Winchell, 1985

services held

Lloyd R. Winchell, 67, of Malcom died Wednesday, Aug. 14, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. John Maze officiating. Organist was Nancy Sears, and pallbearers were Jamie Evans, Jody Galloway, Butch Griffith, Bob Winchell, Dennis Winchell, Guy Winchell and Wayne Winchell. Honorary bearers were Jeff Coomer, Jack Morris, John Orr, Todd Verwers and Paul Weyers.

Burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom.

The son of Ralph and Hazel Garretson, he was born June 9, 1918, at Malcom. He attended Malcom schools and later assisted his father with the family trucking company.

On Aug. 24, 1946, he was married to Marie Nichols at Lancaster, Mo. The couple lived in Malcom following their marriage, where Mr. Winchell worked as a trucker, a plumber, a police officer for the city of Malcom, a school bus driver for the B-G-M School District and later as a meatcutter for the Kellogg Locker.

He is survived by his wife, Marie; two sons, Ralph of Kellogg and Dick of Grinnell; two daughters, Dorothy Weyers and Marjorie Thomas, both of Killduff; one stepson, Jim Evans of Searsboro; one stepdaughter, Judy Galloway of Carlisle; 16 grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; one sister, Wanda McGhgy of Malcom; and four brothers, John and Merle, both of Grinnell, Charles of Malcom and Walter of Troy, Kan. He was preceded in death by his parents; one grandson; three sisters, Elizabeth Smith, Edna Winchell and Ella Winchell; and one brother, Glen.