OBITUARY

ALFRED P. WINDAHL

(Contributed)

Funeral services were conducted for Alfred P. Windahl Friday, Feb. 7, at the Steffy Funeral Home in Montezuma. Rev. William Ell officiated and a choir from the West Liberty church sang "Sweet Hour of Prayer," "Rock of Ages," and "Blessed Jesus." Pallbearers were Lynn Hudnut, Larry Hudnut, Keith Hudnut, Gerald Rohr, Gene Rohr and Arlan Gordin. Interment was in the West Liberty cemetery.

Alfred, son of Ella and Andrew Windahl, was born near Searsboro, March 16, 1891, and passed away at the Mahaska County hospital, Oskaloosa, Feb. 5, 1964, at 72 years of age.

When Alfred was quite young, his father died and he was reared in the home of his grandparents, the J. H. Stanleys. He attended the Searsboro schools, and later became a barber and was employed in Grinnell for several years.

On Nov. 17, 1909, he was united in marriage with Bonnie Easter, and to this union two daughters were born. Their home was in the West Liberty church community until about eight years ago when they moved to Oskaloosa due to his failing health.

Alfred was a lover of horses and raised and trained them. He was a member of the Hawkeye Colt Association.

He is survived by his widow and daughters, Mrs. Oliver (Lucille) Hudnut and Mrs. Carl (Ruth Maxine) Rohr; five grandsons, one granddaughter, a half-brother, Dale Gordin of Oskaloosa; a half-sister, Mrs. Floyd Broyles of Barnes City, other relatives, and many friends.
