Wednesday Services Conducted Here For Mrs. Elvira Wing, 75

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning from the Smith Funeral Home for Mrs. Elvira Wing, 75, of Grinnell, who died early Monday at a local hospital.

Officiating was the Rev. Chester Custer, pastor of the Methodist church. Vocal music was provided by Mrs. Noel Taylor, accompanied by Mrs. Rhee Auman at the organ. Burial was in Fairview cemetery at Farley with the Rev. William Brown, pastor of the Earlville Methodist church, assisting with the committal service.

The daughter of the Rev. Sipko and Adrianna Bruggink Roderus, she was born July 12th, 1888, at New Amsterdam, Wisc. She was united in marriage with Vere Ranson, who preceded her in death, and they were the parents of one son, F. Richard Ransom of Grinnell. She was later married to Henry O. Wing, who also preceded her in death.

Mrs. Wing had made her home in Grinnell since the summer of 1963 coming here from Newton. She was a member of the Methodist church.

Survivors include her son, Richard; one brother, Francis Richard Roderus of Newton; one sister, Mrs. H. H. (Margaret) Ennis of Iowa City. She was preceded in death by her parents and two brothers.
