

BC December 21, 1994

Alton Wolf

Alton H. Wolf, 80, of Deep River, died Sunday, Dec. 11, at Mercy Hospital in Iowa City.

He was born Dec. 22, 1913 at Deep River, the son of Edwin and Julia (Hoening) Wolf. He was graduated from Deep River High School in 1931. On Sept. 16, 1939 he was united in marriage with Alice Wiedow at Marengo. To this union three children were born. They farmed all of their married life near Deep River. He was a member of the United Church of Deep River.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one sister, Hazel Wyant.

Alton is survived by his wife, Alice; one daughter and her husband, Sharon and Melvin McKay of Cedar Rapids; two sons and their wives, Dennis and Julie Wolf of Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Donald and Lori Wolf of Ottumwa; five grandchildren: Randy McKay and his wife, Tanya, Ron McKay, Raegan Westbrook and her husband, Ron, Charlie Wolf and Adam Wolf; two great-grandchildren; Alicia McKay and Kyle McKay; and other relatives and many friends.

Services were held Dec. 15 at United Church, Deep River. Officiating services was Rev. Ken Ferguson, pastor.

Music selections were "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked", Carol Dale, Marilyn Warwick and Gwen Rieck. Pianist was Bruce Rauch.

Honorary casket bearers were Gerald Rieck, Burdett Cranston, Dale McWilliams, George Webber, Cecil Cranston, Arlo Taylor and Don Cranston.

Casket bearers were Ed Shepherd, Doren Dale, Tracy Warwick, Gary Worrall, Ken Keller and Howard Huedepohl.

Interment was at Golden Rod Cemetery, Deep River. Arrangements by Watts Funeral Home, Montezuma.