

ing a good business. 10-6-1899
Monday night, Sept. 25th, Mrs. Lizzie Caldwell-Wolford, of Deep River, passed away to the other world without a murmur, expressing her readiness for the change and a desire to be freed from pain and to be with Jesus. Lizzie Caldwell was born in Keokuk county, Iowa, June 9, 1870, and died Sept. 25th, 1900, aged 29 years, 3 months and 16 days. She was married to Samuel Wolford, Nov. 7th, 1889. This union was blessed with four children—three boys and one girl. The latter died in infancy. She leaves behind a father, mother, four brothers and three sisters, a kind husband and three little boys to mourn the loss of a loving daughter, sister, wife and mother. The funeral services were held in the M. E. church, Wednesday at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. Mr. Phillips, after which the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery east of that town.

Mayo Harris has been re-elected trustee of the Iowa Wesleyan College at Mt. Pleasant. 10-6-1899
6-11

(Samuel)