

H-12

Thursday, March 2, 1967

Sherman Woods, 91,
Retired Kellogg
Farmer Dies Feb. 28

Sherman E. Woods, 91, longtime Jasper County resident in the Kellogg area, passed away Tuesday evening, Feb. 28, at the Jasper County Home where he had been a resident since 1965.

Funeral services will be Friday, March 3, at 1 p.m. at the Johnson Funeral Home in Newton and interment will be at Our Silent City cemetery in Kellogg.

Mr. Woods was the son of John D. and Bethania Masteller Woods and was born Dec. 2, 1875, near Kellogg and educated in the Jasper County Schools. He was preceded in death by his wife, Tranna, in 1948. They had married Dec. 2, 1908. He had farmed before his retirement.

The deceased is survived by a son, Jay Woods of Kellogg; a daughter, Mrs. Letha Raridon, who cared for her father in his home for many years; a grandson, Dr. Richard J. Raridon of Oak Ridge, Tenn.; a granddaughter, Mrs. T. H. Upton (Jeanne Raridon) of Garland, Texas; and five great-grandchildren.