

Services Feb. 4 For George Yeo, 79

Funeral services were held Feb. 4 for George E. Yeo at the Deep River Methodist church. Yeo, 79, died Feb. 1 at his home here after several months of declining health.

Rev. James Seeber officiated at the 1:30 p.m. services. Mrs. Jerry Ulin, organist, accompanied Miss Barba Shine, soloist.

Casket bearers were Allen Ritchie, Dale McWilliams, Marlan McWilliams, Dean McWilliams, Delmar McWilliams, and Richard McWilliams. Interment was in Golden Rod cemetery. Steffy Funeral Home was in charge of arrangement.

George E. Yeo, son of Thomas Yeo and Josephine Voorhes Yeo, was born Sept. 23, 1889 at La Valle, Wis. He died at his home in Deep River Saturday, Feb. 1, at the age of 79 years.

When only a few months old the Yeo family moved from Wisconsin to Old Town, east of Deep River.

On March 3, 1915, he was united in marriage to Jennie McWilliams of Guernsey. He farmed for several years east of Deep River before moving to town. Over the years he continued in farm work in the area. He was a long time member of the Methodist church.

Having been in failing health for several months, he entered the Mahaska County hospital Jan. 9. He returned home after a week and was at home until his death on Saturday.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers, a sister, and one grandson. He is survived by his wife, Jennie, two children, Keith of Walnut, and Mrs. Lois Shine of Victor; five grandchildren, Lanny, Lynda and Terry Yeo; Barbara and Dennis Shine; and two nieces, Mrs. Avis Fletcher of Oskaloosa and Mrs. Albert Timm of Victor.
