Anna M. Zimmermann, 81, of Grinnell died Friday evening at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. today at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home, with the Rev. Harold Bomhoff of Oelwein and Frank Phillipp, intern-seminarian at St. John's Lutheran Church, officiating.

Organist will be Margaret Amo, and pallbearers will be Rudy Zimmermann, Marvin Zimmermann, Fred Logemann, Walter Logemann, Carl Huls, and Paul Engelbart. Burial will be at Rose Hill Cemetery, Marshalltown.

The daughter of George C. and Anchen Catherine Engelbart Johnson, she was born Oct. 26, 1895, near Scotch Grove in Jones County. She was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith.

On Dec. 24, 1919, she was married to Frederick W. Zimmermann at Ryan. The couple farmed in Ewart, then moved to a farm north of Grinnell where they lived for 32 years. Following their retirement from farming, they moved to Grinnell at 509 Ninth Ave. in 1965.

Mrs. Zimmermann is survived by a brother, George C. Johnson of Grinnell. She was preceded in death by her husband in 1974; a brother, John E. Johnson, and a sister, Mrs. Hanna T. Zimmermann.

Should friends desire, memorials in Mrs. Zimmermann's name may be made to Grinnell General Hospital.
