

Leonard Heinselman

Harry Leonard Heinselman, 82, of Grinnell died Tuesday, Dec. 2, at St. Francis Manor.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, Dec. 6, at 11 a.m. at Grinnell Christian Church with John E. Erickson, pastor, officiating. Visitation will be held at the church prior to the service beginning at 9:30 a.m. Memorials may be made to Grinnell Christian Church or to Adult Day Care.

He was born Feb. 15, 1921, in Mason City to Harry and Kate Forbes Heinselman. He was raised and educated in Cerro Gordo and Floyd Counties. He was united in marriage with Velma Manning on Nov. 14, 1944, at the Methodist Church parsonage in Austin, Minn. He was a veteran of World War II, based with the infantry in Fort Sill, Okla., and served in the Philippines and Japan. Following his discharge, he farmed in Floyd and Chickasaw Counties, then moved to Grinnell in 1965 where he and his family owned and operated the A&W Drive-In and the TastyFreez. In 1975 he sold both businesses and began to refinish antique furniture and woodwork.

He was active in West St. Charles Church near Charles City and the Republic Church near Nashua, a 4-H leader in Floyd County and a member of Grinnell Christian Church.

He is survived by his wife Velma of Grinnell; one son Curt of Grinnell, and two daughters, Sue Hahn of Amana and Dixie Decker of Libertyville; seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and brothers Leigh and Lynn Heinselman.
