

Glenn D. Reavis

Glenn D. Reavis, 88, of Montezuma died Thursday, Feb. 26, 2004, at University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics in Iowa City.

A graveside service was held Monday, March 1, at Hazelwood Cemetery with arrangements by Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma.

He was born March 28, 1915, at Lynnville, the son of Grant and Eva Fry Reavis. He was a veteran of World II serving in the United States Army from Oct. 1, 1942, until Nov. 25, 1945, when he received an honorable discharge with the rank of TEC 4. He was employed for several years by the city of Grinnell and also was a cook at several restaurants.

He is survived by one son Derek Reavis; one brother Russell Reavis and two sisters Lela Anderson and Wilma Matheny. He was preceded in death by his parents; one son Brett Reavis who died in the Vietnam War; one sister Gertrude (Gertie) Hauck and five brothers, Ted, Maurice, Clarence, George and Wilma's twin brother Wilbur.

H.R. 3-4-2004

MR - MARCH 3, 2004

Glenn Reavis, 87

Glenn Reavis, 87, of Montezuma, died at University of Iowa Hospitals in Iowa City on Thursday, Feb. 26, 2004.

His body was cremated and there were no funeral services.

Watts Funeral Home of Montezuma was in charge of arrangements.

MR MARCH 10, 2004

Glenn D. Reavis, 88

Glenn D. Reavis, 88, of Montezuma, died on Thursday evening, Feb. 26,
2004, at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics in Iowa City.

Graveside services were held on Monday afternoon, March 1, at the Hazelwood Cemetery in Grinnell. Arrangements were by the Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma.

Glenn was born on March 28, 1915, at Lynnville, the son of Grant and Eva Fry Reavis. He was a veteran of World War II, serving in the U.S. Army, and was overseas from Oct. 1, 1942, until November of 1945. He received an honorable discharge on Nov. 25, 1945, with the rank of TEC 4. He was employed for several years with the City of Grinnell and also was a cook at several restaurants.

He is survived by a son, Derek Reavis; a brother, Russell Reavis; and two sisters, Lela Anderson and Wilma Matheny.

He was preceded in death by a son, Brett Reavis, who died in the Vietnam War; one sister, Gertrude "Gertie" Hauck; and five brothers, Ted, Maurice, Clarence, George, and Wilma's twin brother, Wilbur.